

THE BUZZ

PHOTO BY GETTY IMAGES

26 |

RELIANCE VS ONGC

Oil's Still Not Well

The gas migration dispute involving Reliance Industries and ONGC has taken a new turn; a resolution may take some time

BY KRISHNA GOPALAN

► IN MID-FEBRUARY, A DIVISION BENCH of the Delhi High Court overturned a ruling of an international arbitration tribunal in connection with a gas migration dispute between Reliance Industries Ltd (RIL) and ONGC. The tribunal had ruled in favour of RIL.

THE BEAK-UP

RIL holds a 60% stake in the KG-D6 block. UK-based BP Plc owns 30% and Canada's Niko Resources 10%

Following the ruling, the government has raised a demand of $2.81 billion on RIL and its partners.

The case concerns extraction of natural gas in the Krishna Godavari (KG) basin in Andhra Pradesh. ONGC claims RIL illegally extracted natural gas from its KG-D6 block