

ON THE ECONOMIC HIGHWAY

- (From left) Ajay Seth, Secretary, Department of Economic Affairs
- Ravi Agarwal, Chairman, Central Board of Direct Taxes
- Sanjay Kumar Agarwal, (extreme right), Chairman, Central Board of Indirect Taxes & Customs and Special Secretary to the Government of India

EXPEDITING EMPLOYMENT

- (From left) Jayant Sinha, Former MoS Finance, and Former Chair, Standing Committee on Finance
- Rajiv Memani, Chairman & CEO, EY India and CII President Designate 2024-25
- Sanjeev Bikhchandani, Founder & Executive Vice Chairman, Info Edge India

» Sinha spoke on the newly-introduced employment-linked incentive (ELI) schemes, saying their focus is on the formalisation of labour. He said the schemes are designed to upskill fresh college graduates and make them employable in alignment with the job market

» Memani, however, expressed concerns over the fate of the interns after the period of 12 months when the internship will come to an end » Bikhchandani said that any skill is best developed at work and not in classrooms. He said, "Perhaps... some employees will end up acquiring the required skill, but those will also be a good catch for a company as they would learn in the business environment"

