

LATA GULLAPALLI: A TRAILBLAZER IN INVESTMENT BANKING AND SOCIAL IMPACT

EMPOWERING CHANGE: THE MULTIFACETED CAREER OF LATA GULLAPALLI

Lata Gullapalli is an accomplished investment banker with over 25 years of experience in mergers and acquisitions across South Asia, Russia, and the U.K., serving as a Non-Executive Director on five boards and Chairing a Nasdaq-listed company and also on its audit and remuneration committees. She is also a published author, passionate advocate for education and women's empowerment, and actively involved in mentoring entrepreneurs and developing sustainable change programs.

Lata Gullapalli is a highly accomplished investment banker with over 25 years of experience specializing in mergers and acquisitions across South Asia, Russia, and the U.K. Her extensive expertise and strategic vision have earned her positions on the boards of five companies, both commercial and non-profit, where she serves as a Non-Executive Director. Chairperson of a Nasdaq-listed company, she is also a member of its audit and remuneration committees, exemplifying her proficiency in corporate governance and financial oversight.

Throughout her distinguished career, Ms. Gullapalli has advised numerous companies on mergers and acquisitions, financial restructuring, and capital raising. Her innovative approach has led to the design of bespoke capital-raising products. She has also demonstrated significant entrepreneurial prowess by establishing and managing startup companies, devising strategic plans, and securing necessary funding. Her leadership in forging joint ventures and successfully executing an initial public offering (IPO) underscores her capability in strategic execution.

Ms. Gullapalli is also an award-winning author, with acclaimed works in both fiction and non-fiction. Her publications have garnered excellent editorial reviews, and she is currently engaged in writing a long novel, showcasing her creative versatility alongside her financial acumen.

Her academic background is impressive and multifaceted. Among others, she holds an MBA from INSEAD, a leading global business school, qualifications that underpin her broad and deep understanding of the financial sector.

Ms. Gullapalli's commitment to social responsibility is evident through her involvement in education for underprivileged children. She serves on the board of two trusts focused on this mission and has been instrumental in advising, restructuring, and rebuilding educational institutions for disadvantaged youth. She proudly states, "I am working in both, for profit and not for profit sectors. I think one must run both organizations in the same way. In this age of impact, it is essential to give back to our roots, or whatever made us what we are".

Her dedication to social impact extends to mentoring women entrepreneurs in rural areas and designing a course on Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion (DEI) and sustainable change for the University of Jordan, to be included in their curriculum in January 2025. Ms. Gullapalli aspires to expand this mentorship program across multiple countries, amplifying her global impact.

As a recognized speaker on mentorship for women in senior leadership roles, Ms. Gullapalli shares her insights to inspire and motivate future leaders. She says, "Women are superbly empowered in themselves. They are full of power. The need is to perhaps help to charge the battery or to guide them how to start or change gears in an impactful way". In her roles as a consultant, chair, and non-executive director, she provides strategic guidance on financial restructuring, private equity placements, and mergers and acquisitions, helping businesses realize their full potential. Her efforts in designing and implementing educational programs for children in developing countries underscore her commitment to leveraging her expertise for social good.

Furthermore, Ms. Gullapalli invests in high-growth businesses within the finance and renewable energy sectors. She mentors entrepreneurs, offering strategic guidance to drive their growth and success. Her proven track record of delivering positive outcomes in both the corporate and NGO sectors highlights her leadership and unwavering commitment to excellence.

Lata Gullapalli's career is characterized by her financial expertise, entrepreneurial spirit, literary achievements, and dedication to social causes. Her contributions to the financial industry and her steadfast commitment to empowering the underprivileged position her as a beacon of positive change and an inspiration across both corporate and social spheres.