

PHOTO BY GETTY IMAGES

SHOOTING UP

India is becoming a major player in space exploration, with government investments boosting space technology and infrastructure

The space sector is using the public-private partnership method to address challenges in infrastructure and funding

Space missions are expanding, with new missions to Mars and the Moon being announced

The satellite launch market is growing with cheaper options coming in now

India's share of the global space economy will go up to 8% by 2030, from 2% in 2021