LEAPING AHEAD

MARKET GROWTH

India's consumer market, currently valued at over $800 billion, ranks fourth globally and is expected to become one of the Top 2 markets by 2047

GROWING BASE

With 435 million consumers, India is second only to China, while the US ranks third with 240 million consumers

DEMOGRAPHIC DIVIDEND

India's young population, especially those aged 20-33, is a key driver of increased discretionary spending

GOING PREMIUM

Rising affluence and demand for premium products, especially in urban areas, are reshaping the FMCG sector

RURAL PUSH

Rapid rural consumption growth is narrowing the rural-urban divide, with India's rural consumer base expected to outpace China's
