

The Rise of Viacation: Innovation and Leadership in Modern Travel

In the ever-evolving landscape of travel, Viacation, led by visionary CEO Jatinder Paul Singh, is emerging as a transformative force. With a commitment to a people-first approach and innovative offerings, Singh is steering Viacation towards becoming a global leader in delivering exceptional travel experiences.

In a sector historically dominated by a few national players, Viacation is making its mark as a dynamic start-up with a clear mission: to create a travel brand that truly prioritizes the individual. The name itself, a play on “vacation” with an added “i,” symbolizes the company’s focus on individual needs—whether it be the customers or the team members who form the backbone of the brand. This “People First” philosophy is the cornerstone of Viacation’s operations, influencing everything from talent acquisition to customer service.

Jatinder Paul Singh’s extensive 25 years of experience with global travel giants like KUONI, Thomas Cook, Cox & Kings, and Ebix-Via.com has uniquely equipped him to lead Viacation. His leadership philosophy, which he describes as “process with people,” has been instrumental in his success, and now, he is channeling that expertise into building Viacation into more than just another travel company. Viacation, under Singh’s guidance, is a brand built on a legacy of expertise and a passion for exploration, aiming to offer smart holidays that provide real value to today’s informed travelers.

The travel industry has undergone significant changes in recent years, particularly due to the pandemic, which left a void in the market. Recognizing this shift, Singh has positioned Viacation to fill the gap and become a leading player in the Indian travel market. But Singh’s vision extends beyond the national stage. He aims to transform Viacation into a globally recognized hospitality brand, made in India but with a presence on every continent. This ambitious vision is supported by an omnichannel distribution ecosystem and a world-class customer excellence center, designed to cater to the diverse needs of travelers worldwide.

One of Viacation’s strengths lies in its diverse portfolio of offerings. The company provides a wide range of services, including escorted international group tours, customized FIT packages, India holidays, corporate travel, and niche segments like sports and spiritual tourism. This diversity allows Viacation to meet the varied needs of today’s travelers, making travel convenient and enjoyable for everyone.

Innovation is another key driver of Viacation’s success. Under Singh’s leadership, the company has embraced technology with an online booking tool for agents and SME partners, offering a seamless solution for travel bookings. This platform, with features like real-time updates, robust security measures, and an intuitive interface, enhances the customer experience, making it more personalized and efficient.

At the heart of Viacation’s success is a commitment to authenticity and quality. Singh has fostered a culture of transparency within the company, ensuring that every product and service offered is of the highest standard. This approach has helped Viacation build strong relationships with customers, who trust the brand to deliver on its promises. As Singh puts it, “At Viacation, our mission is to turn travel dreams into reality by prioritizing people, innovation, and authenticity. We believe that every journey should be an unforgettable experience, crafted with care and driven by excellence.”

As Viacation continues to grow, Jatinder Paul Singh’s leadership will remain the cornerstone of its success. His vision, experience, and unwavering commitment to excellence are driving Viacation toward a future where it will not only meet the needs of today’s travelers but set new standards for the industry. Under Singh’s guidance, Viacation is more than just a travel company—it’s a brand that is redefining the art of travel, one unforgettable journey at a time.

We are committed to advancing and expanding the holiday sector by simplifying the purchasing and selling experience. Our goal is to make holidays accessible and affordable for everyone, not just a select few. We focus on educating travelers about essential aspects of their trips and guiding them to choose ideal options that align with their preferences and needs. This approach ensures that creating limitless fond memories is a reality for all, democratizing the joy of travel.
