Anticipating high pilgrim footfall in Ayodhya, the government has unveiled a new international airport and a revamped railway junction

AYODHYA

TEMPLE BOOM

From hotels to real estate, and airlines to railways, there's a frenetic pace of activity at Ayodhya

► AS THE INAUGURATION of the Ram Temple nears, businesses have found a new destination for their investments—Ayodhya in eastern Uttar Pradesh. The town on the banks of the Sarayu River is buzzing with industry, as both private enterprises and government congregate there ahead of the inauguration on January 22. From real estate developers and hotel owners to airlines, the country's leading corporate houses are heading to the temple town, which wasn't on their radar till a few years ago.
