

Global Fintech Leadership Forum held at GIFT City on January 10 that was attended by the leadership of 26 prominent companies worldwide, including the likes of Reliance Industries Chairman & MD Mukesh Ambani, Micron Technology President and CEO Sanjay Mehrotra, and ArcelorMittal Executive Chairman Lakshmi N. Mittal.

Among other investments in GIFT City, Japan's Mizuho Bank is setting up an IFSC banking unit, while the UAE-based Transworld Group plans to start aircraft and ship leasing.

Meanwhile, GIFT City MD & Group CEO Tapan Ray said at the summit that ONGC Videsh will set up a finance company for treasury operations, while IT services major Wipro plans to set up tech-fin operations. Accenture, another IT services major, also plans to set up an office there, he added.

At a separate seminar on GIFT City at the summit, Union Finance Minister Nirmala Sitharaman said it is ideally poised to be the gateway for a financial and investment hub and will play a significant role in achieving India's target of becoming a developed nation by 2047. She also announced that the government's plans to build a diverse fintech laboratory at GIFT City, which it hopes to use as a platform for trading of green credits.
