

THE BIG REBOOT

▶ Mohit Burman-led Dabur has launched a new growth strategy with its power brands to put the company on a sustained growth path

▶ Dabur's top-line growth since Mohit Malhotra took over as CEO has improved to 8 per cent CAGR and boosted its sales to ₹11,530 crore in FY23

▶ The acquisition of Badshah Masala grew its F&B revenues to ₹1,832 crore in FY23. It is expected to post strong volume-led growth in the high twenties in the December quarter

▶ In spite of volatility in multiple geographies and currency fluctuations, its international business, which contributes 25 per cent to the company's top line, continues to grow in double digits

▶ Defying the recent slowdown in the rural market, Dabur's management is now eyeing yearly revenues of ₹20,000 crore
