

India on the Global Stage: Motwani Jadeja Foundation launched the Global India Dialogues at the World Economic Forum in Davos 2024

Based out of the Bay Area, NYC, and India, the Motwani Jadeja Foundation has a strong global footprint across various sectors of growth and across academia

Global India Dialogues by the Motwani Jadeja Foundation is a dynamic platform that catalyzes collaborations among a diverse range of stakeholders in India's growth journey. The platform provides a forum to explore and exchange ideas on various topics, including economic development, foreign policy, security, culture, and innovation. Through its diverse initiatives, Global India Dialogues aims to promote a deeper understanding of India's global aspirations and challenges, encouraging collaborative efforts towards building a more inclusive, sustainable, and prosperous world. India has been experiencing an unprecedented economic strategies. These experts share their knowledge and insights on a broad range of topics, encompassing India's leadership role in global geopolitics, emerging critical technology, innovation, and culture.

At Davos Brainstorm 2024, Rahul Kanwal, Executive Director of Business Today, had an exclusive conversation with Asha Jadeja Motwani, Investor, Philanthropist, and Founder of the Motwani Jadeja Foundation at Davos 2024. They discussed India's growth story and the role of India's Diaspora in it. Asha Jadeja emphasized that there is no stopping India's growth story. However, she noted that India is being slow in its policy deals, citing examples from the United States of America on how it is impatient to close deals with Indian companies and implement certain policies. She also expressed her views on how a Free Trade Agreement with India would benefit everyone, considering the growing and positive outlook on India. Asha further growth rate, positioning it as the fastest-growing economy globally.

Anchored at top US Universities and think tanks, Global India Dialogues is a unique platform that brings together some of the most brilliant minds worldwide responsible for shaping global discussed how the Indian Diaspora influences various sectors, such as technology and now even in political spheres.

At the Davos Brainstorm 2024, Business Today's Executive Director, Rahul Kanwal, also had an exclusive conversation with Fred Kempe, President & CEO of the Atlantic Council at Davos 2024. They discussed India's growth story and the Atlantic Council's views on it. Fred believes that India's