

① Ashwini Vaishnaw, Minister for Railways, Communications, Electronics & IT

② (From left) Brad Smith, Vice Chair & President, Microsoft; Kalli Purie; and Rahul Kanwal, News Director, India Today and Aaj Tak, and Executive Director, Business Today

③ Smriti Zubin Irani, Union Minister for Women & Child Development and Minority Affairs (left) with Rahul Kanwal

the new world disorder.

China made it back to Davos this year, ending its self-imposed isolation to mingle back with the international community. Dubbed as a 'pseudo-state visit', Beijing's Davos delegation is said to have included 10 state ministers and many business bosses. Despite the charm offensive, the focus remained on China's underperforming economy and its troubled relations with the US.

THE DISCUSSIONS FOCUSSED ON HOW INDIA CAN MAINTAIN THE MOMENTUM TO BECOME THE THIRD-LARGEST ECONOMY IN FIVE YEARS

In contrast, the discussions around India were focussed on its post-Covid resilience and how it can continue to maintain the momentum to emerge as the world's third-largest economy in the next five years. Union Ministers Smriti Irani, Ashwini Vaishnaw and Harddeep Singh Puri, along with the chief ministers of Maharashtra and Telangana, Reserve Bank of India Governor Shaktikanta Das and