

bunkers of the 18-hole championship course that opened in 2009 delivered an unforgettable experience for golf enthusiasts, as shown by the scores.

Through the next four hours of play, the golfers showcased their skills as well as camaraderie. When the dust settled, Deepa Singal emerged victorious in the ladies category, while Sushant Khosla claimed the title in the men's 0-14 handicap category and Milind Barde was declared the winner in the men's 15-24 handicap category.

The Pune leg of the tournament witnessed a full house with over a hundred participants. Among them were business leaders, top executives, and entrepreneurs, including the chief guest, Anil Soolekar, Chairman of Oxford Group. "BT Golf has been played in several cities but surprisingly, Pune has not been one of them [in recent years]... so I think we are now on the map for them. I am really excited about the prospect of the tournament returning to Pune in the future and bringing even bigger and more exciting events to the city. Pune is a thriving city with a promising future, attracting many corporates and businesses. Next year, let's aim for something truly grand," he said.

Several prominent business leaders were present at the draw, including KCTR Varsha Automotive Chairman Jinendra Munot, Gartner India Country Manager Partha Iyengar, Paradigm Inc's Pradip Nadkarni, Adaxy Tech CEO & MD Shrikant Ahirrao, Vijay Chhabria of Finolex Plasson, and Anil Dighe of Axis Bank. The ladies entries included Mridula Kulkarni, Deepa Singal, Wealth Engineering CEO Smita Atre, and others. BT

@sakshibatra18

Sourav Bhowmick (left) with Mahesh Kumar Bhadangkar, BT Golf award winner for the Radico straightest drive

Sourav Bhowmick (left) with Anil Indarpal Seth, BT Golf award winner for the Radico closest to pin

◀ Pankaj Shrivastava, Business Head-RMC Business West, Adani Group

Mridula Kulkarni, a golf enthusiast