

A VIEW FROM THE CORNER OFFICE

(From left) Sakshi Batra, Senior Associate Editor & Anchor, BTTV

86 | Ameera Shah, Promoter & MD, Metropolis Healthcare

Prabha Narasimhan, MD & CEO, Colgate-Palmolive (India)

Vinati Saraf Mutreja, MD & CEO, Vinati Organics

Devita Saraf, Chairperson & CEO, Vu Group

Upasana Taku, Co-founder & COO, MobiKwik

Calling the adaptability to do anything and everything required to make the business a success a critical part of being a leader, Ameera Shah said that walking the talk is very important

Prabha Narasimhan said that one is able to do their best work when their passion, purpose and work align, and as long as you feel that you are growing, you'll get where you are meant to be

Talking about the vitality of a solid support system, Upasana Taku said that even in the absence of it, one has to have the conviction to get up and get going the next day after encountering challenges

Vinati Saraf Mutreja said that if one has passion about the subject and good understanding of it, then the chemicals industry can be a very equitable place to work as it doesn't matter who is selling the product as long as it is good and priced well

Devita Saraf said that her journey to establish a global-Indian brand has been about putting Indian talent and innovation into an Indian company to make products for India

THE 'IT' WOMEN

(From left) Aayush Ailawadi, Technology Editor, BTTV

Rekha M. Menon, Former Chairperson & Senior Managing Director, Accenture in India

Arundhati Bhattacharya, Chairperson & CEO, Salesforce India

Sindhu Gangadharan, SVP & MD, SAP Labs India; Head, SAP User Enablement

Although conversations have shifted about women's participation, Rekha M. Menon said that a lot more needs to be done, and it cannot be just an HR problem; rather, it has to be driven by the leadership