

Arundhati Bhattacharya said that there are phases in a woman's life when companies need to be flexible about the way they prioritise work and home, and if supported during these times, women can prove to be crucial resources for organisations

Sindhu Gangadharan said that diversity, including gender diversity in the top leadership and board positions across organisations is no more a question of how it should be done, but how quickly it can be done, and technology can help with that

WOMENOMICS: DRIVING THE $5-TRILLION DREAM

(From left) Sourav Majumdar, Editor, Business Today

Ashima Goyal, Member, RBI's Monetary Policy Committee

| 87

Anupriya Acharya, CEO, Publicis Groupe, South Asia

Radhika Gupta, MD & CEO, Edelweiss AMC

Padmaja Chunduru, MD & CEO, National Securities Depository Ltd

Vibha Padalkar, MD & CEO, HDFC Life Insurance

Ashima Goyal said that social belief in women and families supporting them in their work can help them contribute a lot towards the country's goal of achieving a $5-trillion economy

Talking about the role ads play in a society, Anupriya Acharya said that there are many initiatives currently underway that ensure that every campaign or ad is looked at from a modern, progressive lens

Citing the success of Nykaa under Founder and CEO Falguni Nayar, Radhika Gupta stressed the powerful impact of role models in encouraging women professionals and entrepreneurs

Padmaja Chunduru said that apart from changes in society and mindsets, women in senior positions should also look out for other women to help them succeed

Vibha Padalkar said that the focus needs to be on financial literacy and basic infrastructure for women needs to be strengthened to ensure that they can enter the workforce on an equal footing