

CREATIVITY THROUGH THE FEMALE LENS

Kalli Purie (left), Vice Chairperson, India Today Group
Zoya Akhtar, Director & Co-founder, Tiger Baby

Calling rejection par for the course in Bollywood, Zoya Akhtar said that while getting into the industry is a challenging task, if one has to survive, they have to learn to live with it

Akhtar said it is very important to be nice to people and acknowledge their efforts, adding that being kind is an underrated quality. She added that it is always a good practice to apologise when one makes a mistake

Highlighting the need for a calm and peaceful environment to ensure that people deliver their best work, she said it is important as a leader to bring that calmness to the workplace

LEADING FROM THE FRONT

Madhabi Puri Buch, Chairperson, Securities and Exchange Board of India

Calling mutual funds a great product for financial inclusion, Madhabi Puri Buch said the markets regulator is working with the industry to figure out the best way to roll out SIPs of ₹250 per month

Reflecting on her role as a markets regulator, Buch said that since her decisions impact the lives of so many people, they have to be logical, backed by data, have a hypothesis, and be tested

