

(From left): Ashok Sharma, BT Golf winner in the men's 0-14 handicap category; Rajesh Soni, Executive VP, Bandhan MF; and Alok Nair, Chief Operating Officer, Business Today

Subhash Goyal (right), runner-up in the men's 0-14 handicap category with Mustafa Khambaty, Country Manager (Northern & Western India), Qatar Airways displayed their golfing skills with the club and the putter, putting on some energetic performances.

Nikhil Saluja (left), AGM-Marketing (Delhi), Radico Khaitan, with Himmat Sandhu, winner of the straightest drive (Hole 10)

Nikhil Saluja (left) with Dhruv D. Kumar, BT Golf winner for the longest drive (Hole 8)

Finally, after hours of play, Rabiya Gill emerged as the winner in the women's category, while Ashok Sharma topped in the men's 0-14 handicap category. It was a close race in the men's 15-24 handicap category; Rahul Aggarwal finally edged out Amarjit Ahluwalia in a tiebreaker after both finished on 37 points. The close scores reflect the competitiveness and never-say-die attitude of the people in the city,

Winners and participants of the Chandigarh leg of the invite-only Royal Ranthambore BT Golf tournament at the Panchkula Golf Club, on December 16, 2023