

Amarjit Ahluwalia (left), BT Golf winner in the men's 15-24 handicap category with Rajesh Soni

(From left): Rabiya Gill, BT Golf winner in the ladies category, with Rajesh Soni and Alok Nair

(From left) Mustafa Khambaty; Rahul Agarwal, BT Golf runner-up in the men's 15-24 category; Rajesh Soni; and Alok Nair

Sakshi Batra, Senior Associate Editor and Anchor, BT TV

Sant Dhiman (left), BT Golf winner for the longest drive (Hole 15), with Alok Nair

An artist performing at the BT Golf event in Chandigarh

which has also produced golf icons like Jeev Milkha Singh.

An array of top leaders from the world of business graced the tourney, which included Quattris Chief Executive Officer Ajay Singla, India Swift Managing Director and Chief Executive Officer Gopal Munjal, S.P.S. Ghai of Chandigarh Golf Club, Sanctus Global Formulations' Managing Director V.K. Joshi, and Astra Agro Foods Director Jaspreet Bakshi.

The action now shifts to the Pune leg of BT Golf that will be played on January 12, 2024. BT