FUNDING THE $5-TRILLION DREAM

V. Vaidyanathan, MD & CEO, IDFC First Bank

- ▶ Talking about the demand for credit, V. Vaidyanathan said that it is more than what the banking system can supply, and the regulator has been conveying the message from time to time for the banking system to calm down
- ▶ Highlighting the risks faced by the banking system, Vaidyanathan said, one is retail and another is wholesale lending risk, but the big risk that everyone should be careful about is cybersecurity risk, because it is an unknown unknown
