

Enhancing Women's Safety A Holistic Strategy

Shakti Mobile Units

In a proactive measure to combat crimes against women, Shakti Mobile Units have been established across all 1584 police stations in the state. These units swiftly take legal action against individuals engaged in crimes against women, ensuring that counseling is also provided to the offenders and their family members.

Women's Help Desk

The establishment of the Women's Help Desk at all 1584 stations, including the Government Railway Police (GRP), ensures that comprehensive information regarding visitors, complainants or victims is easily accessible at the modernized reception. At the Women's Help Desk, complainants are provided with a token on which all relevant information is meticulously recorded. Notably, the Women Helpline 181 has extended assistance to 5.62 lakh women.

Women Police Beat and Women Beat Police Officer

A network of 10,417 Women Police Units has been established across all 1584 police stations. These units are staffed by 20,740 Women Beat Police Officers, specially appointed for these roles.

Their primary mission is to combat crime and address criminal activities through active engagement with women in rural areas. Additionally, they undertake awareness campaigns to inform women about various government schemes and programs aimed at promoting women's well-being.

Women's Cyber Cell

A specialized Women's Cyber Cell has been established within the cyber police station, functioning across all 18-zone headquarters. The Women's Cyber Cell is dedicated to swiftly and efficiently addressing complaints related to cyberstalking and cyberbullying on the Internet and various social media platforms.

Mission Shakti Room

Mission Shakti Rooms have been set up within every Gram Panchayat building across the state. These Mission Shakti Rooms serve as hubs for seamless coordination between NGOs, Asha Bahu, and Anganwadi workers. They play a pivotal role in raising awareness among women regarding their issues and rights, as well as providing information about a range of welfare schemes.
