

B-SCHOOL BLUES

A degree from a top B-school is seen as a fast track to a high-paying career. But with course fees at the top 25 B-schools rising nearly 23% in five years, and wage growth slowing, students confront potentially lower returns on investment

By PRINCE TYAGI & RAHUL OBEROI

Graphics By RAJ VERMA

IS THE AVERAGE RETURN ON INVESTMENT AT GOVERNMENT-AIDED INSTITUTES IN 2025 AGAINST 1.22 A YEAR AGO. ROI FOR PRIVATE INSTITUTES STOOD AT 0.88 IN 2025 AGAINST 0.85 LAST YEAR

RISING COST

THE AVERAGE COURSE FEE AT TOP 25 B-SCHOOLS HAS CROSSED ₹20 LAKH, RISING NEARLY 23% IN THE LAST FIVE YEARS

SLOW SALARY GROWTH

AVERAGE SALARIES OF GRADUATES FROM THE TOP 25 B-SCHOOLS RECORDED THE SLOWEST GROWTH OF 16% IN FIVE YEARS

