

SUM OF THE PARTS

Over the past decade, India has emerged as the world's second-largest mobile phone manufacturer with 300 plants

To move beyond assembly, the government launched the Electronics Component Manufacturing Scheme; outlay ₹22,919 cr

The scheme offers differentiated fiscal incentives: turnover-linked, capex-linked and hybrid