

Q&A

“Would be a happy man if Raymond continues its legacy”

Raymond Group's Gautam Hari Singhania on how the group plans to enhance value for its shareholders

BY SAKSHI BATRA

16 |

WITH THE DEMERGER and separate listing of Raymond Lifestyle in 2024 and Raymond Realty on July 1, 2025, Chairman and Managing Director Gautam Hari Singhania is scripting a growth story anchored in focused verticals. In an exclusive conversation with Business Today, he shares his vision for building long-term shareholder value through distinct plays in lifestyle, engineering, and real estate, while staying true to the brand's core pillars of trust, quality, and speed. Edited excerpts:

▶▶▶

The Raymond group has completed 100 years. What lies ahead for the group, and what is your vision?

Nobody has a free run all through life. In personal and business life, you always have ups and downs, but it's only the tough that survive. I'm very proud that Raymond is one of the few companies that have

PHOTO BY BANDEEP SINGH