

HANG GLIDING OVER MONTEREY BAY, CALIFORNIA

There are few thrills more liberating than gliding silently over the Pacific Ocean, with the wind in your face and the breathtaking Monterey coastline unfurling beneath you. Thanks to the region's consistent coastal breezes, Monterey has become a sought-after destination for aerial adventure, including hang gliding. It offers opportunities for beginners to experience hang gliding with tandem flights. These flights are conducted with professional instructors who handle the glider, allowing you to enjoy the experience without any prior experience. For experienced gliders, solo flights are possible with the right permits and weather checks. One of the best launch points is Marina State Beach, known for its strong thermals and panoramic views. Nestled beside the Marina Dunes Preserve, the beach also draws kite flyers and surfers, but it's the sky that truly steals the show. The best season for hang gliding in Monterey is the spring and fall. During these seasons, the weather conditions are generally favourable, with mild temperatures and steady winds that are ideal for hang gliding.

SOUTH AMERICA REIMAGINED

For the first time, an exclusive adventure experience is inviting discerning travellers to explore South America aboard a luxuriously refurbished 1940s-style 'Dakota' aircraft. Channelling the golden age of aviation, it combines cinematic glamour with remote wilderness. Over 12 days, you will touch down on some of the continent's most secluded airstrips—destinations that remain largely untouched by tourism. The expedition begins in Peru, where you hike through forests near Gocta Falls, discovering ancient mummies hidden in the jungle. Stargaze under Atacama's vast skies, soak in the volcanic hot springs, and ride horseback with Patagonian gauchos amidst glaciers. The exclusive trip organised by White Desert's Dr. Jones is meant for only 12 people. Three trips are being offered beginning September. Secure your spot!

PRICE $49,950 PER PERSON
