

DESERT THRILLS AT MLEIHA, SHARJAH

Tucked deep in Sharjah's heart, Mleiha is more than just a desert escape—it's the emirate's premier adventure capital. With its dramatic red dunes and rich archaeological legacy, this rugged landscape invites thrill-seekers and culture lovers alike. The star attraction? Dune bashing. Strap in for a white-knuckle ride across steep, shifting sands in a 4x4, or take the wheel yourself—licensed drivers can tackle self-drive trails winding past natural icons like Fossil Rock and Camel Rock. Along the way, discover ancient fossils, surreal rock formations, and vast, silent panoramas that capture the desert's timeless magic, as these routes blend geology, history, and natural beauty.

PRICE BETWEEN $150-175

SWIM WITH GREAT WHITE SHARKS IN SOUTH AFRICA

Gansbaai, a charming fishing town on South Africa's coast, is hailed as the birthplace of the great white shark cage diving—a must for thrill-seekers. This heart-pounding adventure lets you safely encounter one of the ocean's most feared predators up close. The whole experience is safe and expertly managed. Reputable local operators enhance each dive with the presence of a marine biologist and a videographer, offering expert insights and a lasting record of your dive. For an unforgettable mix of adrenaline and awe, go cage diving with the great white sharks in South Africa.

PRICE APPROXIMATELY 3,350 ZAR FOR AN ADULT AND
1,900 ZAR PER CHILD

@smitabw

These experiences take you around the world and challenge your limits

