

THE GROUP RANKINGS

BY PRINCE TYAGI

 INDIA'S MOST PROFITABLE corporate groups continue to be an important pillar of the nation's economy. According to the annual BT500 rankings, which have shifted focus in FY25 to the most profitable from the most valued, the cumulative profits of companies rose to ₹17 lakh crore. This impressive bottom line is significant, representing one-third of India's central Budget for FY26 and nearly 5% of the country's gross domestic product. Among these, the 71 central public sector undertakings (PSUs) emerged as the most profitable group of companies, with a combined profit of over ₹5.4 lakh crore, highlighting their importance in the growth of the economy.

Setting aside the combined central PSU pack, the Tata Group remained at the forefront of private sector profitability, with a profit of nearly ₹93,000 crore and a healthy 4.7% year-on-year growth in FY25. This diversified conglomerate spans key industries such as steel, automobiles, IT, and power, driving steady earnings performance. The BT500 data also points to a positive trend across India Inc with sectors such as banking, financial services, power, automobile, insurance, healthcare fueling the overall corporate earnings landscape.
