IN 1897, A young lawyer-turned-entrepreneur named Ardeshir Godrej abandoned his legal career after a series of failed ventures and took a bold gamble on something simple yet symbolic—locks. Few would have guessed that this modest foray into manufacturing would be the key to building one of India's most enduring and diversified business empires.

More than a century later, the Godrej Industries Group stands as a symbol of resilience and reinvention, with businesses spanning consumer products, agribusiness, real estate, and chemicals. From safeguarding homes with locks to safeguarding livelihoods with sustainable farming, housing millions in its real estate ventures, and building a household name, the Godrej brand has become deeply entwined with India's growth story.

And this enduring relevance has given Godrej Industries Group a place in Business Today's annual BT500 edition. The group was the fastest-growing entity in the BT500 list, seeing a stupendous 382% rise in profit after tax (PAT) in FY25.

Godrej Industries Group has a consolidated revenue of over ₹50,000 crore, and the group's diverse businesses, including Godrej Consumer Products Ltd (GCPL), Godrej Agrovet Ltd (GAVL), Godrej Properties

Built on resilience

The group has evolved into one of India's most iconic and diversified conglomerates, spanning consumer goods, agribusiness, real estate, and chemicals

It delivered consolidated revenues of over ₹50,000 crore in FY25, with Godrej Industries and GCPL leading the charge

After a loss in FY24, GCPL bounced back with profits of ₹1,852 crore in FY25, thanks to double-digit growth in detergents and air fresheners

Godrej Properties' profits increased, driven by high-demand city markets and fast-turnaround plotted projects
