

| THE POINT |

RETAIL LOAN WOES

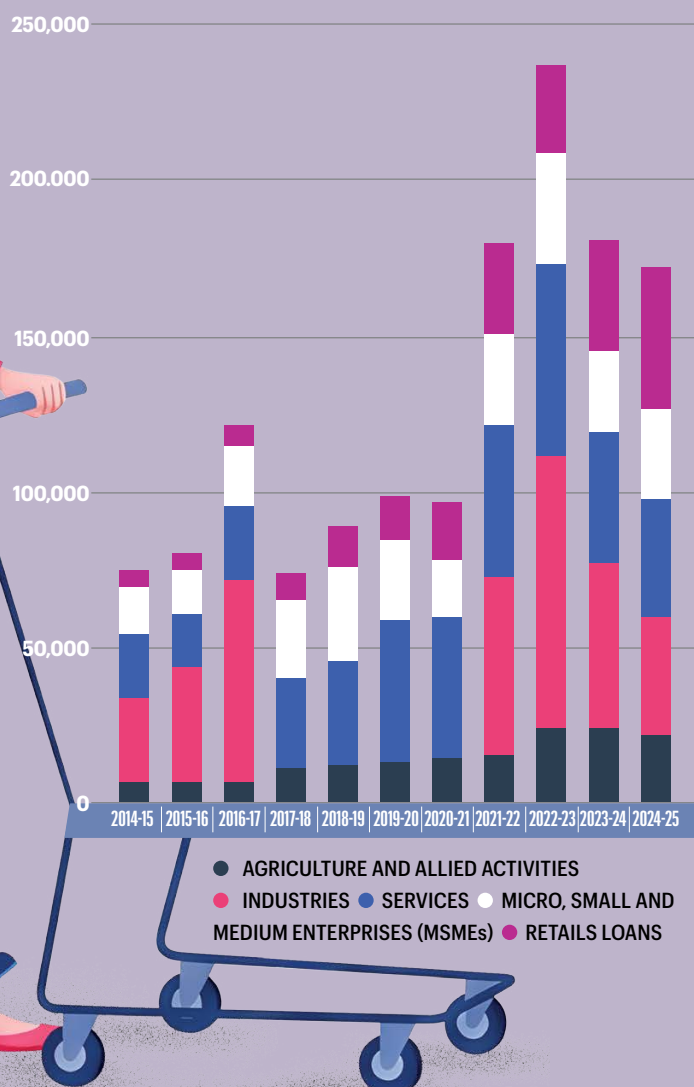

For years, India's banking crisis had a villain: the over-leveraged corporate borrower. But FY25 delivered a plot twist. For the first time, retail loans drove more write-offs than the corporate sector. The borrower-in-crisis is no longer a conglomerate, it is the Indian household

By JYOTINDRA DUBEY & PRINCE TYAGI

Graphics By RAJ VERMA

ALARMING TREND

AT ₹45,404 CRORE, RETAIL LOANS LED IN TERMS OF WRITE-OFFS FOR THE FIRST TIME

NOTE Figures in ₹crore SOURCE Lok Sabha reply by Minister of Finance