

| THE POINT |

WEATHERING THE STORM

The sharp fall in domestic equity markets has shaken mutual fund investors with the stoppage ratio for systematic investment plans (SIPs) soaring to 123% in February—the highest since at least April 2021. However, SIPs have delivered strong long-term returns despite downturns

By RAHUL OBEROI & PRINCE TYAGI

Graphics By RAJ VERMA

FEAR FACTOR

MORE THAN 20 MILLION SIPs HAVE BEEN STOPPED SINCE THE CORRECTION BEGAN ON D-STREET IN OCTOBER 2024

NOTE DATA TILL FEBRUARY 2025; STOPPAGE RATIO IS NUMBER OF SIPs DISCONTINUED/COMPLETED DIVIDED BY NEW SIPs;

SOURCE CMIE ECONOMIC OUTLOOK, AMFI

₹64.5
LAKH CRORE

THE NET AUM OF INDIA'S MUTUAL FUND INDUSTRY IN FEBRUARY 2025. IT WAS ₹27.2 LAKH CRORE IN FEBRUARY 2020, AS PER AMFI

44

THE NUMBER OF MF HOUSES IN INDIA AS OF JANUARY 2025, RUNNING MORE THAN 1,800 SCHEMES, AS PER PRIMEMFDATABASE.COM

₹25,999
CRORE

THE SIP AMOUNT COLLECTED IN FEBRUARY 2025 VERSUS ₹26,459 CRORE IN DECEMBER 2024, A THREE-MONTH LOW

