thana Rajiv won the ladies tournament with a massive 39-point haul. While Warner picked up the winner's trophy in the 0 to 14 handicap section, Saif Mekhri finished as the runner-up. The 15 to 24 handicap section was topped by Shashank Agarwal who tallied 36 points, just ahead of second-placed Gaurav Dev Burman (35 points). Both Mekhri and Dev Burman needed a back nine countback to seal their runner-up positions, such was the degree of competition in their respective categories. There were several on-course prizes well. Nanda Kishore won the Royal Ranthambore closest to pin on hole 2, his tee shot ending up just five inches from the hole. Dr Kratish Bopanna bagged the Royal Ranthambore straightest drive on hole 12, his shot seven feet and an inch off the line while the Royal Ranthambore longest drive prize on hole 14 was won with a 292-yard effort from Arvind Kumar.

Darshan L. took top spot in the IOCL longest drive on hole 4 with a 297-yard hit. Nilesh Jamburao was a foot and three inches away in the Bandhan Small Cap closest to pin competition on hole 6, while Shekhar Narayanbhatta topped the Bandhan Large Cap longest drive on hole 11 with 260 yards and Anupam Singhi was on the line in the Bandhan Mid Cap straightest drive on hole 16.

The Embassy closest to pin on hole 15 prize went to Putturaj B.N. with his tee shot finishing 10 feet and 2 inches from the flag. Former India fast bowler Dodda Ganesh was the chief guest on the day, and he felicitated the champions and spot prize winners. BT
