

Aankith and Megha Arora: The Visionaries Behind 3TENX

■ Megha Arora
Co- Founder & COO
3TENX

■ Aankith Aroraa
Founder & CEO
3TENX

In the fast-evolving Indian beauty industry, where innovation and accessibility are the keys to success, Aankith and Megha Arora have emerged as trailblazers. As the founders of 3TENX, they have redefined professional haircare by bridging the gap between salon expertise and high-performance hair solutions. Their entrepreneurial journey, however, began long before the launch of 3TENX and is rooted in years of experience, strategic foresight, and an unwavering passion for business.

A Legacy of Entrepreneurship

Megha and Aankith's journey into the beauty industry is a testament to their combined vision, expertise, and strategic insight. With Megha's deep-rooted experience of over 15 years in professional beauty and Aankith's sharp business foresight, backed by more than 22 years of expertise, the duo has transformed the landscape of salon haircare in India.

Megha and Aankith have been instrumental in bringing globally renowned brands like OLAPLEX, KEVIN. MURPHY, and AVEDA to the Indian market, ensuring that salon professionals and consumers alike have access to top-tier products and education. As pioneers in the industry, they have built Streamline Beauty India Pvt. Ltd. into a leading omnichannel powerhouse, seamlessly integrating professional salon distribution, retail, and education to redefine beauty experiences across the country.

With a relentless commitment to excellence and innovation, they have built a ₹90 crore business, reaching over 10,000 salons across the country. Their dedication has positioned them as one of the most influential forces in India's professional beauty industry.

Building 3TENX: A Game-Changer in Indian Haircare

Recognizing the need for cutting-edge, science-backed hair care solutions for salons and consumers, the duo set out to create something unique—3TENX. Their vision was simple: luxury haircare that is innovative, effective, and backed by expertise.

Despite being just 10 months old, 3TENX has already made an impressive impact. The brand has rapidly expanded to 1100 salons across India and is generating revenue in crores—an achievement that speaks volumes about its demand and effectiveness in the professional space. From conceptualizing professional-only innovations like the Caviar Hair Ritual to creating high-performance retail formulations, every aspect of 3TENX reflects their commitment to excellence.

Leadership That Inspires

As business leaders, Aankith and Megha complement each other perfectly—Megha brings creativity, product expertise, and market insight, while Aankith focuses on execution, scaling, and financial strategy. Their ability to balance business and personal life while maintaining a shared vision has been key to their success.

With 3TENX poised for exponential growth, the duo continues to push boundaries, ensuring that salons and consumers alike have access to transformative, high-performance hair care. Their journey is a testament to entrepreneurial grit, innovation, and a relentless pursuit of excellence—qualities that truly make them among India's best CEOs.
