PERSISTENCE

- 01 PhysicsWallah is a leading player in the IIT-JEE and NEET test prep space with a 35% market share and a valuation of $3.7 billion
- 02 Alakh Pandey has avoided aggressive acquisitions, preferring partnerships to expand the firm
- 03 With an IPO planned this year, experts believe PhysicsWallah meets key profitability benchmarks but warn about the challenges of diversification
- 04 Its rapid offline expansion faced hurdles, including concerns from students that the firm was changing
- 05 While it dominates in test prep, it is yet to fully tap into the K-10 (school-level) market and regional language education
