THE BT BEST BANKS AWARDS SHOWCASED THE TOP LEADERS OF THE FINANCIAL INDUSTRY, WHO DELIBERATED ON THE FUTURE OF INDIA'S FINANCIAL

IT'S NO SURPRISE that India's financial capital would host industry veterans to discuss the future of the financial sector. The Business Today Best Banks Awards ceremony took place in Mumbai on February 20, gathering top minds in the industry. In the inaugural session 'Banking In Bharat And Beyond: The Next Chapter,' Dinesh Khara, the former Chairman of the State Bank of India, shared his expertise and vision on the evolving landscape of banking in India, touching upon key areas such as financial inclusion, technological advancements, and the future of payment systems.

Gunit Chadha, Founder, APAC Financial Services, said that the surge in digital requirements, spanning from transactions to financial strategising, has created both avenues for growth and regulatory hurdles for fintech companies, catalysing swift progress in the industry.

Given that India's banking system is grappling with
