

Opportunity in Adversity

US President Donald Trump's decision to hike tariffs has unsettled the global trade order. As the US is one of the largest importers of Chinese products, its trade war with China could open new opportunities for other nations, especially India. Here's how India's trade landscape could evolve

By PRINCE TYAGI & RAHUL OBEROI

Graphics By RAJ VERMA

SOURCE CMIE ECONOMIC OUTLOOK

SLOW LANE

INDIA'S MERCHANDISE TRADE WITH THE WORLD HAS REMAINED NEARLY FLAT OVER THE LAST THREE YEARS

13.73%

INDIA'S SHARE IN US SMARTPHONE IMPORTS IN 2024, UP FROM 7.88% A YEAR AGO

$383.51 BILLION

WORTH OF SERVICES INDIA EXPORTED IN FY25, UP 12.4% YEAR-ON-YEAR. SERVICES IMPORTS ROSE 9.33% TO $195.95 BILLION

$500 BILLION

THE BILATERAL TRADE TARGET INDIA AND THE US HAVE SET TO ACHIEVE BY 2030. THE FIGURE WAS $107 BILLION IN FY25 TILL JANUARY