INDIGO VS A

HITS

- Competitive pricing
- Better regional connectivity to feed into international sector
- Newer aircraft on international routes
- Leader in regional international South East Asia & Middle East
- Direct connectivity to international destinations not served by a domestic carrier

MISSES

- Hybrid model (not low-cost or full service) may not offer premium services on international routes
- Competition from other carriers on global routes
- May take five years to expand on long-haul routes
- Difficult to get slots at key international airports
- Yet to join a global alliance like Star
