HEALTH INSURANCE POLICIES ARE NOW
CUSTOMISABLE TO FIT VARIED LIFESTYLES—
FROM METRO MILLENNIALS TO SMALL-TOWN
SENIORS. CHOOSE WISELY

BUYING HEALTH INSURANCE today feels more like visiting a restaurant with a menu full of choices, where you can pick and choose add-ons to create a plan that suits your unique needs. It's no longer a dull, rigid process. With rising lifestyle-related risks and medical inflation, it is important that health insurance seekers have the option to choose from what they want and control what they pay for.

Hence, insurance providers have moved away from the one-size-fits-all approach of the past. From unlimited sum insured to locking in your premium, new-age health insurance plans are transforming how Indians perceive and purchase medical coverage.

"Customers are no longer limited to predefined plans," says Anand Roy, Managing Director & Chief Executive Officer, Star Health & Allied Insurance Co Ltd, which has a 33% market share in retail health insurance and 91% of total health gross written premium (GWP) for retail businesses.

"With new-age products, buyers can build a policy that truly mirrors their health needs and lifestyle. The control now rests with the policyholder," says Roy.
