

Vacheron Constantin Traditionnelle Manual-Winding

► CONTINUING WITH ITS

270th year anniversary celebrations, Vacheron Constantin has launched a new edition of the Traditionnelle Manual-Winding collection. The watch, in 18k pink gold, has been launched in a limited edition of 370 and boasts unique decorative elements inspired by the brand's emblematic Maltese Cross. The dial features special anniversary décor, including a railway-type minute track. Each model is powered by meticulously crafted in-house movements and adorned with a distinctive 'côte unique' finish and the 270th-anniversary emblem. It has a power reserve of nearly three days.
