

 PRESENTS  Business Today GOLF SILVER JUBILEE SEASON	Co-Powered By   IndianOil 100 octane premium petrol	New Energy Partner  SOLAR STUDIO
	Driven By   MORRIS GARAGES Since 1924	Associate Partner  GMDC FUELING THE GROWTH

most prestigious golf competition saw a healthy turnout and great competition. With the venue in impeccable condition and the weather acting as a good friend, it made for a fitting end to a journey that spanned seven cities in four months and created a host of special memories.

On a cool March morning, the click and clump of club on ball, unstinting encouragement for shots well hit and the occasional muffled curse when a putt slid agonisingly past its target abounded around the Oxford course. At the end was a generous repast and liquid refreshments that awaited the golfers.

Participatory golf, mixed with a healthy dose of competition was the order of the day, underlining just why Business Today Golf is such a popular box to tick on the calendar for

A VIBRANT SPRING MORNING at Pune's Oxford Golf Resort dictated the mood of the curtain downer edition of Royal Ranthambore Business Today Golf's silver jubilee edition in Pune on March 29.

India's longest-running, and

→
Russell Parera, Partner,
PwC

→
Prakash Tolani,
Senior Consultant and Advisor, Aerospace & Defence,
Siemens
Digital Industries

Kailash Monga,
Chairman,
Monga
Strayfield

