

THE BUZZ

12 |

SEBI

GOING SHORT

The T+0 settlement cycle brings with it many benefits, including cost and time efficiency

BY ASHISH RUKHAIYAR

► MADHABI PURI BUCH, the first woman chief of India's capital markets regulator, the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Sebi), is not known for pulling punches. If proof was needed of that trait, there was her speech at the CII Corporate Governance Summit on April 2.

"There was a time when we, as Indians, used to sit in the last row of global forums. Today we sit centre stage... People turn to India and ask us for guidance and advice. We sit there as panellists in discussions. We are not in the last row. We are sitting in centre stage, receiving awards and giving guidance to the rest of the world on how we have implemented