

Luxury Personified in Electronics for the Elite

From Left to Right - Mr Kush Malik, Mr Sunil Malik, Mr Luv Malik

Tech geeks, Luv Malik and Kush Malik, gifted with the talent to discern 'Luxury' in electronic gadgets, partnered to established 'Luxury Personified' in 2015, New Delhi, to cater to the niche customers' indulgence of possessing top global electronic gadgets. As India's pioneering distributors and marketers of the world's most exclusive electronics brands, Luxury Personified, offers unparalleled experiences with products offerings embedded with cutting- edged technology.

'Luxury Personified' ventured into the luxury electronics industry with the simple motive of introducing remarkable luxury audio products in India. Over the years, the company has evolved into an international growth accelerator and distributor for premium lifestyle electronics, supporting renowned brands such as Marshall, Devialet, Sonos, Bang & Olufsen, GoPro, Jlab, Hurom, Therabody, Adidas, Urbanears, Shokz, and Dyson, and still counting.

Through their strategic development and market penetration efforts, 'Luxury Personified' has successfully introduced some of the finest brands to the Indian market while committedly expanding its portfolio with exclusive world-class luxury brands. Known for setting new industry standards in 'luxury' the company delivers products that are sheer masterpieces in innovation and craftsmanship, which redefine the essence of high-end electronics.

Luxury Personified prides itself on offering an outstanding product and service portfolio that is flexible and tailored to meet customer needs that differentiates it from its competitors. All brands represented by Luxury Personified are trend-setters in their respective segments, which underlines the company's expertise and eye for luxury like none else in the industry. Kush Malik, emphasises that Luxury Personified is committed to excellence, which positions it as a key player in the elite electronics and accessories market, while it continues dedicatedly to bringing the best of global luxury brands to discerning consumers across India, since its inception.

The company continues to expand its strong presence country-wide through relentless focus on the distribution and marketing of premium accessory products in the consumer electronics sector, backed by a well-established distribution network including dealers and retailers. Emphasizing that the company's strength lies in providing unmatched service offerings, Luv Malik, assures that Luxury Personified will continue to evolve as more brands seek to enter the market and require value-added distribution.

In line with its staunch belief in shared joy, shared gain and shared experience, the company has developed a unique partner program, which includes in-depth product and sales training, marketing resources and much more. Brands are encouraged to join Luxury Personified as partners so as to actively participate in the mission to gain from the advantages of luxury electronic products and accessories.

Masters in the art of creating unparalleled luxury experiences through the integration of hi-tech technology, the key to sustained growth and success of Luxury Personified are also the strong foundational pillars of integrity, customer- centric approach, impeccable service, reliability, teamwork, partnership and professionalism.

The company continues to persevere and achieve its vision to become India's leading home-grown enterprise for the distribution of luxury electronics and accessories, built around customer centricity. Luxury Personified aims to empower individuals and businesses with a missionary zeal by providing top-notch electronic products and solutions supported by exceptional customer service. Enhancing lives by connecting people with cutting-edge technology, fostering a culture of excellence, and contributing to the growth and success of its partners and communities is the ultimate truth for Luxury Personified.