

▲ THIRSTING FOR GROWTH The Mahabubnagar Water Grid in Telangana that MEIL built

THE EPC PLAYERS

- ▶ MEIL competes against L&T and Patel Engineering
- ▶ A healthy order book has kept the business going

● Revenue (FY23) ● Net profit (FY23) ● Order book

NOTE ORDER BOOK AS ON DECEMBER 31, 2023 BUT FOR MEGHA ENGINEERING (SEPTEMBER 30, 2023)

SOURCE COMPANY ANNUAL REPORTS, MEDIA STATEMENTS

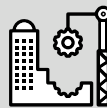

much money has been saved,” he explains in a mix of English and Telugu. A big moment was when Minister of Road Transport & Highways Nitin Gadkari praised the company in March 2022 in Parliament for offering to do the Zoji-la tunnel at less than half the budgeted ₹12,000 crore. Interestingly, the ₹14,400-crore Thane-Borivali tunnel project was clinched by Megha a month after it made a contribution of ₹140 crore by way of bonds in April 2023.

Reddy says MEIL’s books are transparent. “People would like to interpret our growth in many ways. In India, many companies have won large projects, and I am just one of them,” he emphasises, adding that all bids are also open to foreign companies. “In a world of e-procurement, one can bid from anywhere, and a process must be followed. I don’t like to get worked up about what people say.” Looking at his watch, he tells us in Telugu it’s time for lunch. “I am hungry, so let’s continue this conversation after that.”

E FOR EXECUTION

The interest in technology shows up in the annual report of MEIL where each of the initiatives is outlined across two pages under the heading “Technology Ab-

₹32,000

CRORE

THE ANNUAL TURNOVER OF MEGHA ENGINEERING & INFRASTRUCTURES IN 2022-23

₹5,500

CRORE

TOTAL DEBT OF MEGHA ENGINEERING & INFRASTRUCTURES ON A CONSOLIDATED BASIS AT THE END OF FY23

0.25

THE DEBT-EQUITY RATIO OF MEGHA ENGINEERING & INFRASTRUCTURES AT THE END OF FY23