

While domestic air traffic has been rising steadily since the pandemic, airlines—facing multiple challenges—have not been able to keep up with demand

TAKING FLIGHT AGAIN

Domestic air traffic recovered quickly from Covid-19 and is expected to hit record highs in 2023–24

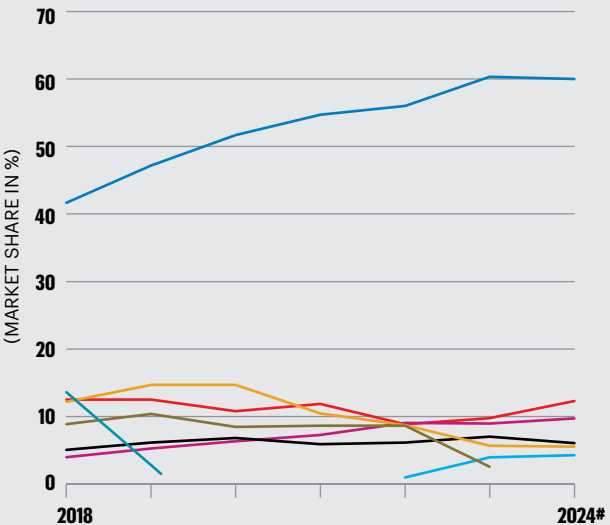

DOMESTIC PAX INTERNATIONAL PAX

SOURCE DGCA

A VOLATILE SHOW

Market share of all airlines has reported major changes in recent times; two major airlines have turned defunct since 2019

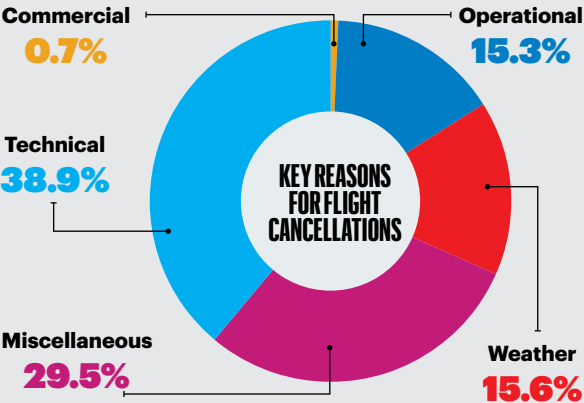

INDIGO AIR INDIA VISTARA AIX CONNECT (AIR ASIA)*
SPICEJET AKASA GOAIR/GO FIRST JET AIRWAYS

NOTE #TILL MARCH; JET AIRWAYS CEASED OPERATIONS IN APRIL 2019; *AIR ASIA TILL 2022 (TATA GROUP MERGED AIRASIA INDIA INTO AIR INDIA EXPRESS, AND NOW OPERATES IT UNDER AIX CONNECT); FILED FOR BANKRUPTCY IN 2023 SOURCE DGCA

TECH TROUBLE

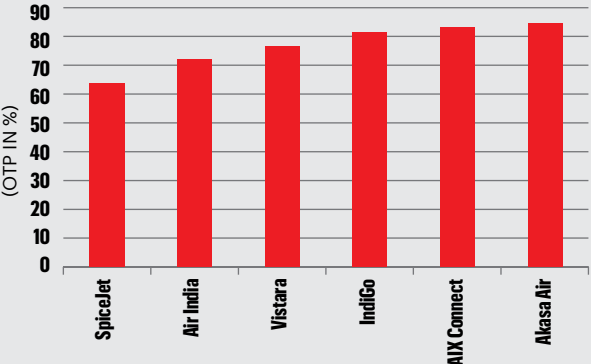

Technical snags were a key concern for domestic airlines in March 2024

NOTE DATA FOR MARCH 2024 SOURCE DGCA

NEGOTIATING A STORM

The on-time performance of SpiceJet, Air India, and Vistara stayed below 80% in March

NOTE ON-TIME PERFORMANCE (OTP) AS MEASURED AT BENGALURU, DELHI, HYDERABAD, AND MUMBAI IN MARCH 2024 SOURCE DGCA