

Adani Sportsline focuses on grassroots development, with cricket being one of the important sports.

Adani Sportsline Academy has one of the biggest basketball student enrolments in the country.

marathon running at a community event sponsored by Adani Sportsline. Initially running for fun, Sanjay's potential was quickly recognised by the coaches at Adani Sportsline Academy. With rigorous training, mentorship and unwavering support, Sanjay went on to win several national marathons and even represented India in international events.

Anjali Mehra: The Rising Tennis Star

Anjali Mehra's journey in tennis took a significant turn when she joined Adani Sportsline's tennis academy. Coming from a modest background, Anjali had the talent but lacked the resources to hone her skills. Adani Sportsline not only provided her with world-class training facilities but also sponsored her participation in various national and international tournaments.

Ravi Singh: The Football Prodigy

Football in India has seen a revolutionary change with burgeoning talent coming from various corners of the country. Ravi Singh, a young prodigy from Delhi, was discovered during a grassroots football development programme initiated by Adani Sportsline. His exceptional skills and athletic prowess earned him a spot in the Adani Sportsline Football Academy. His meteoric rise is a clear indicator of the significant strides Adani Sportsline is making in promoting football in India.

Marathon for a Greater Cause

One of the standout examples of this vision in action is the Adani Ahmedabad Marathon, which has grown exponentially over the past eight years to become a cultural movement for the city and one of India's premier distance-running events. Unlike most corporate houses that act as sponsors, the event started with 8,000 participants. Last year, its eighth edition saw nearly 20,000 runners from across India and overseas taking part in the event, making it one of the country's leading marathon events.

What truly sets it apart is its core purpose. #Run4OurSoldiers, a tribute to the armed forces that gives civilians a unique opportunity to run alongside them. Not only that, but a significant portion of the proceeds also goes toward the welfare of Indian soldiers and their families.

#GarvHai Initiative

Launched ahead of the Rio Olympics in 2016, #GarvHai is a national initiative aimed at identifying, supporting, and celebrating emerging sporting and humble talents across the country.

The #GarvHai initiative has also supported chess Grandmaster R. Praggnanandhaa, recognising his talent and contributions to Indian chess which has seen grand success in the global arena as well. Praggnanandhaa, a rising star in the world of chess, has achieved significant milestones, including becoming the youngest Grandmaster from India in 2018.

Building A League of Giants

The Gujarat Giants philosophy is rooted in nurturing young talent, giving them the opportunity to grow and excel. Since its inception, the Gujarat Giants franchise has evolved into a multi-sport powerhouse, leaving a mark across various sports such as kabaddi, kho-kho, and cricket, driven by a deep-rooted belief that leagues build strong platforms to bring together participation, fans and commerce.

Gujarat Giants is also one of the five founding teams of the Women's Premier League (WPL), a tournament that has reshaped women's cricket globally. In the recently concluded season, the team reached new heights, as it made their much-anticipated home debut in front of packed stadium and went on to build a pan-India fanbase, alongside advancing to the semi-finals for the very first time.

Adani Sportsline's commitment to promoting sports and nurturing talent is unwavering. From grassroots development to elite sports management, the organisation is pioneering efforts to help India emerge as a global sporting nation. The success stories of athletes nurtured and promoted by Adani Sportsline are a testament to the transformative impact of the organisation in the world of sports.
