According to the ACI Worldwide Report 2024, India accounted for about 49% of global real-time digital payment transactions in 2023, highlighting its leadership in digital payment innovation. Moreover, as part of India's global outreach, Prime Minister Narendra Modi has strongly backed the expansion of UPI within the BRICS bloc, which now includes six new member countries. This move is aimed at boosting remittance flows, increasing financial inclusion, and strengthening India's position in the global financial system.
