

BOUGAIN RESTAURANT & GARDEN BAR

On a clear, sunny day head to the charming Bougain Restaurant & Garden Bar in Cascais for lunch. It's the kind of place where you would like to dress up and have memorable conversations all while enjoying spectacular food and wine. Situated on the ground floor of a century-old mansion called the Casa da Pérégola, the highlight of the restaurant is the garden. The menu is designed to showcase the richness of Portuguese cuisine, combined with the finest flavours of Italian and French gastronomical traditions. Don't miss out on the steak tartare, the duck rice with chorizo or the sole with beurre blanc sauce. You can make reservations online.

AMÉLIA CAFÉ

Popular among the locals and not that well-known to the tourists is Amélia, a beautiful café in Rua Ferreira Borges. Enjoy a hearty breakfast of French toast, granola or acai bowls, or a brunch that includes fresh orange juice, pancakes, eggs to order and yoghurt with granola along with coffee/tea for 17 euros. It's away from the bustle of the city in a quiet lane, making it ideal for that one day when you want to unwind and not play the tourist. Sit in the charming patio and observe the locals catching up for coffee or tapping away on their laptops while you sip a glass of mimosa, probably the best in the city! Reservations recommended.

ADEGA BELÉM URBAN WINERY

If you are looking to do something different, visit Adega Belém Urban Winery, a small boutique winery located inside a former car repair shop in Belém. Open on Thursday, Friday, and Saturday, you can enjoy a tasting, cellar tour and more. They have red, white, and sparkling wines. It's the passion project of its owners—Catarina and David—an evolutionary biologist and an anthropologist, respectively. They love to show you around and chat more about the wines and how they got into the business. While tastings can be done as a walk-in for tours, you need to book in advance. BT
