

Changing Climate Tech

India's 800+ climate tech start-ups are shifting to science-led solutions like carbon capture and energy storage. They have raised $3.6 bn over the past decade

While early-stage funding is strong, late-stage capital remains scarce, limiting scalability. Energy and transportation continue to dominate investor interest

