

dant content, particularly catechins like epigallocatechin gallate, promotes cardiovascular health, boosts metabolism and supports mental clarity.

Mixologists across the country are experimenting with matcha. At New Delhi-based INJA, head mixologist Supradeep Dey has created a vodka-based cocktail called Bouquet with matcha and mishti doi (sweet yogurt)! “Its vibrant green hue, health associations and deep cultural roots make it an intriguing ingredient that guests are curious to matcha tea market in India is experiencing remarkable growth, with projections forecasting a CAGR of 8.6% from 2024 to 2030, potentially reaching $167 million by the end of the decade, according to a report in Data Insights Market.

Of course, love for matcha is primarily a metro phenomenon.

Kolkata’s cocktail bar Little Bit Sober sells over 100 matcha cocktails a week. Called Hello Stranger, it comes with a garnish of a matcha meringue. In Mumbai, at Donmai, the cocktail

186 |

If you are a Japanese inspired restaurant/bar, a matcha cocktail is almost a given explore. It feels modern, yet grounded in tradition,” he says.

At DOS at New Delhi’s Lodhi Colony, the matcha cocktail is one of the best-selling drinks. “At DOS, we’ve had fun experimenting with it, whether in a citrus-forward spritz or shaken into something bold and herbaceous. Matcha brings a new kind of sophistication to the glass. It’s not just a trend, it’s a vibe,” says Jitender Sharma, Regional Manager & Mixologist at DOS.

Love for all things matcha is ensuring that the Matchaaa features clarified matcha with gin and sake and is served with a matcha Pocky.

If you are a Japanese inspired restaurant/bar, a matcha cocktail is almost a given. At JW Marriott Aerocity’s Japanese restaurant Adrift Kaya, a matcha cocktail was introduced to reflect the modern Japanese identity of the restaurant. Priced at ₹850, it comes with matcha air foam. At Gurgaon’s Japonico, an Asian restaurant and bar, the matcha cocktail called Union is all about storytelling. Served from a teapot,

3

4