INDIA HITS BACK

Pakistan's benchmark KSE-100 index crashes after India hit terror targets there and in PoK

► HOURS AFTER INDIA launched strikes on terror camps and infrastructure at nine locations in Pakistan and Pakistan-occupied Kashmir in the early hours of May 7, the stock markets of the two countries showed a very divergent trend.

The Indian strikes, part of Operation Sindoor, came two weeks after terrorists killed 26 people, mostly tourists, in Pahalgam in the Kashmir Valley. The Indian armed forces targeted the headquarters of Lashkar-e-Taiba and Jaish-e-Muhammad, Indian officials said.
