

Berger's PAINT BALL BATTLE

BERGER PAINTS IS FOCUSING ON NEW AREAS SUCH AS WATER-PROOFING AND CONSTRUCTION CHEMICALS TO STRENGTHEN ITS CORE BUSINESS AND STAVE OFF COMPETITION FROM NEWER PLAYERS

BY KRISHNA GOPALAN

TWO YEARS AGO, in peak summer, Abhijit Roy was on a routine visit to Nagpur. It was an oppressively hot afternoon, and the MD & CEO of Berger Paints was in deep conversation with dealers and a bunch of contractors. Such interactions often lead to a path-breaking idea. That day was no exception. “The water from the tap is unbearably hot. We have to wait for it to cool down,” said a contractor, imploring Roy for a solution. The MD & CEO smelled an opportunity and, once back at the company’s Kolkata headquarters, called in the top team. The task: create a product to cool down water in plastic as well as concrete tanks. “We needed something that could
