

THE BUZZ OF THE WEEK

Rahul and Priyanka Gandhi holidayed abroad but in different directions. Rahul was in Cuba while his sister was spotted in London's Regent Street, shopping for her children with just a lone security guard trying to look unobtrusive.

VOICES

"Don't do politics for lies, leg-pulling, grumbling and for picking holes. A country whose leaders take decisions with a narrow mind gets destroyed."

Rajnath Singh, BJP president

"We can't afford to rest with past achievements. We have to march with the 21st century. National leadership has to radiate confidence in our people that we can do it."

A.P.J. Abdul Kalam, former President of India

"I may come back (to the BCCI) but before that I'll ensure that they do not put anybody on ransom or use coercive methods. Nobody can treat it (cricket) as their fiefdom."

Jagmohan Dalmiya, former BCCI chief

"As a filmmaker you feel you are god. You create a world. People live and die when you want them to. You feel you have the power in your hands, which is called cinema."

Karan Johar, filmmaker

"When I came out of the spacecraft (Discovery) for a space walk, I had this feeling that Ganesha was looking over me."

Sunita Williams, astronaut
