

THE BUZZ OF THE WEEK

A week after Pratibha Patil was sworn-in as President, many key appointments are still to be made, leading to speculation that 10 Janpath is involved in a bit of give and take for virtually every recruit for the Rashtrapati Bhavan.

VOICES

"Myself and Rajiv (Gandhi) were never interested in politics. Rajiv joined politics on the request of Indiraji, while I joined it at Rajiv's request."

Sonia Gandhi, Congress president

"Developed countries must realise that being a Muslim doesn't make a person a commander of Osama. They should be careful before branding anybody a terrorist."

Mukhtar Abbas Naqvi, BJP vice-president

"Sports is a matter of public and national interest. We'll not tolerate the Government's interference. Politicians are heading sports federations without being sportspersons."

I. Srinivas, joint secretary, Sports Ministry

"Don't construe my silence, patience and calmness as weakness. Kumaraswamy should hand over power to me two months from now."

Y.S. Yediyurappa, Karnataka deputy chief minister

"It's embarrassing to be depicted as a goddess. Posters don't make me proud. I would like to pull them all down."

Vasundhara Raje, Rajasthan chief minister
